1903: old and new

1980 Wolfe Fest

Noted Wolfe scholar Dr. Louis Rubin of UNC-Chapel Hill examines Of Time and the River at the Wolfe Fest banquet.

On October 18th and 19th, 1980, the Kenan Library and St. Mary's held the sixth annual Thomas Wolfe Fest. Speakers, panel discussions, a play, and a film explored the dimensions of the theme "Thomas Wolfe and the Discovery of America." Featured speakers came from throughout the U.S. and included Dr. Louis Ruhin, Wilma Dykeman, Dr. Guy Owen, Elizabeth Lay Green, Carole Klein, Dr. Sue Fields Ross, and Dr. Elizabeth Evans. The Fest was co-sponsored by the N.C. Humanities Committee. The Thomas Wolfe Society, an international organization, met in conjunction with the Fest.

St. Mary's holds one of the four major collections on Thomas Wolfe in the United States. It was established in 1975 by Dr. and Mrs. John Fulenwider of Page-land, S.C., and now contains over 2,000 items.

Following the short Wolfe play, Concerning Honest Bob, Mr. Donald Roberts, Dr. Abraham Holtzman, Mrs. Elizabeth Lay Green (St. Mary's Class of 1915), and Professor Emeritus Richard Walser, discussed life and politics during Wolfe's days and in contemporary times.

Distinguished guests Mr. and Mrs. Albert Coates, friends of Thomas Wolfe, receive registration materials from Mrs. Fussell.

North Carolina and the Arts

Conrad Weiser, potter

North Carolina has a long tradition of nurturing and promoting its rich cultural arts heritage. In keeping with this tradition and in celebration of the new decade of the 80's, St. Mary's College presents a special tribute to all phases of North Carolina arts, and to the splendid creativity represented by the gifted North Carolina artists who are a part of this program.

Mike Cross, musician/storyteller

Tom Walters, poet

The National Opera Company

Mary Anne Jenkins, painter

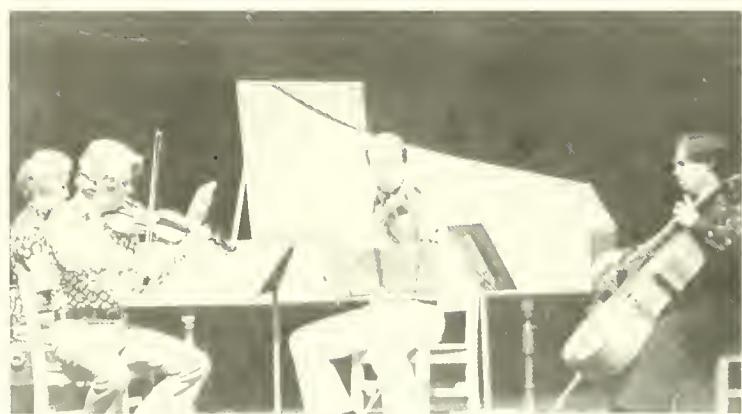

Monday morning assemblies awakened students with — folk music, a jazz pianist and percussion trio, modern dancers, chamber music, a poet-film maker and a Christmas extravaganza — all presented by North Carolina and the Arts Series; two gala evenings brought blues, rock, bluegrass and folk from Mike Cross, and "Don Pasquale" from the National Opera Company!

Coaches

Mary Lou Jones Inducted Into Tennis Hall of Fame

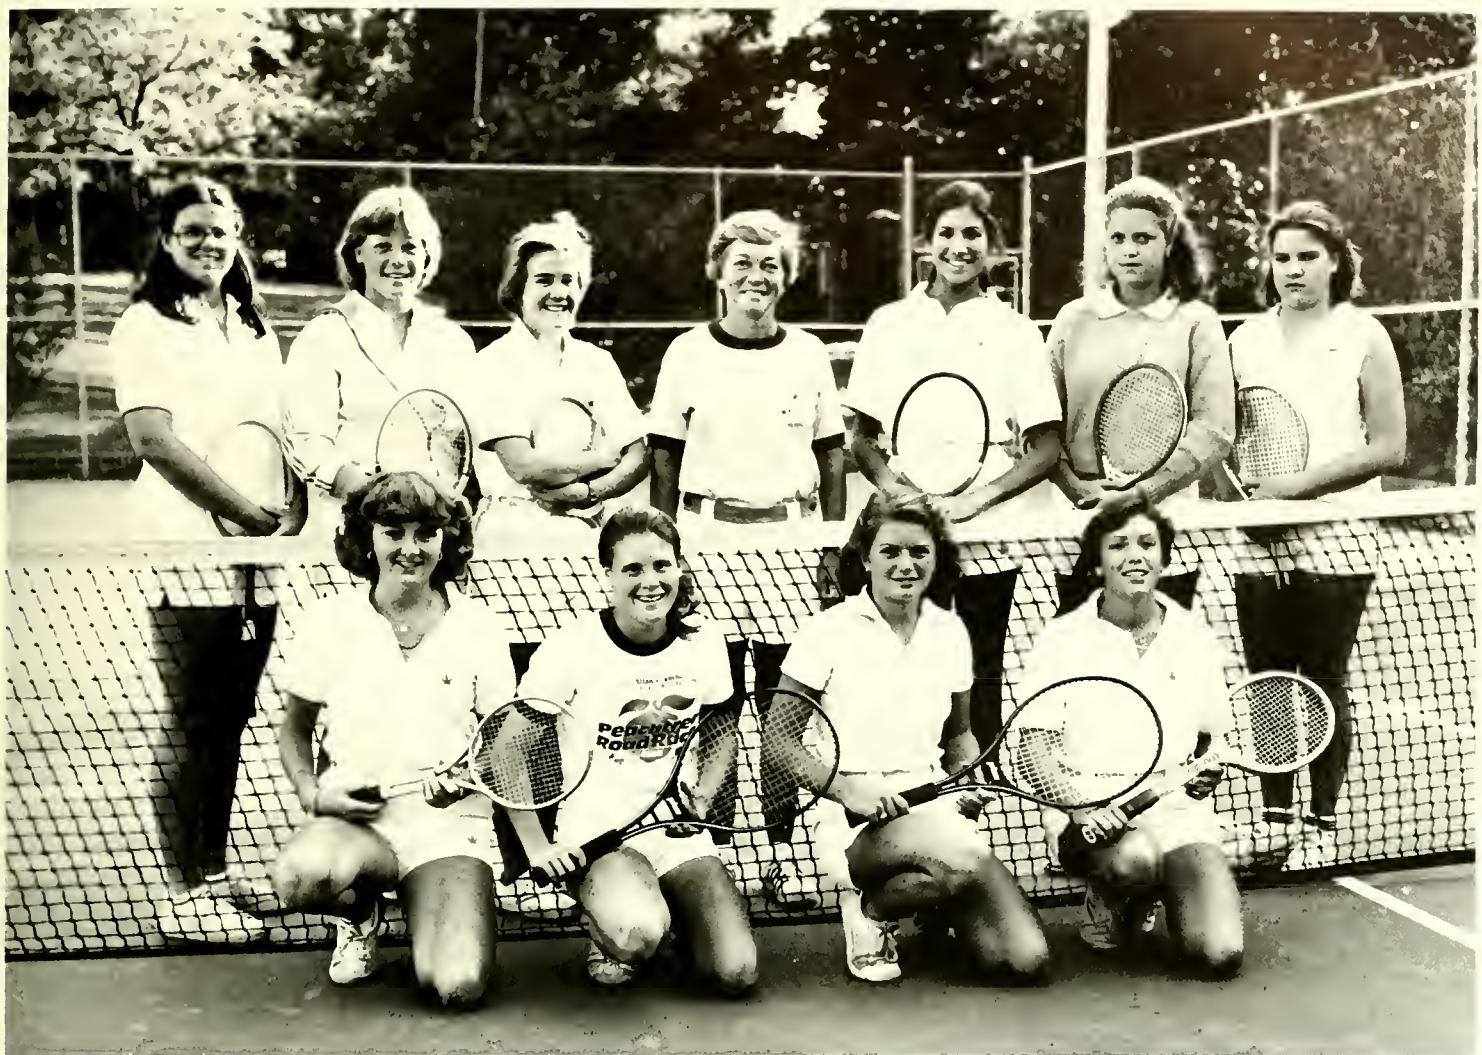

Mary Lou Jones has become a well-known figure in her years at St. Mary's. She has coached the St. Mary's Tennis Team to many winning seasons and championships, as well as run a highly respected tennis camp in the summer. Miss Jones has, herself, won many state and regional titles, and she has diligently promoted tennis as a sport for a lifetime. The fall of 1979 proved to be Miss Jones' time of recognition. She was inducted into the North Carolina Tennis Hall of Fame for her contribution to tennis in North Carolina, and on this page St. Mary's would like to recognize and thank Miss Jones for her promotion of sports, especially tennis at St. Mary's.

Seniors here, Seniors there . . .

Valinda DuBose and Felicia Wardlaw support
SMC tennis.

Leigh Moore — this one's for you!

The SMC cheerleaders!

Taking a break from her busy school work, Tosh Pratt relaxes between classes.

SENIORS EVERYWHERE.

Nancy Brooks — performing as usual!

Second Penick gathers for a night out.

Anne Signons serves Margie Morgan some of that delish cafeteria punch.

Ellen McCown and Cleaves Smith cheer SMC on.

In Loving Memory

Nancy Elizabeth Marlowe

A child is born and is ferociously awakened into the light
The first chance and the first glimpse of what is to come
She grows under a heam of love and securny
Each year is a rung of the ladder
A skinned knee and a broken heart carefully mended
These only to be overcome with the imborn will of survival and happiness
Judged and taugt, tears of doubt bnt another test of life
The true test lies aronnd a dark corner and where is that beam
She was only half way there and she had taken most of the risks
Where's the hlame and was it destined?
Now she's a stranger in a dream where the priviledges of life are hard to come by
But she wasn't prepared
The memory is there placed behind a piece of glass
Maybe it's back to square one — acceptance

Good night and sweet dreams Elizabeth.
We love you.

In Closing

For years the yearbook of St. Mary's School was known as the Muse, a name which was shared with several other campus publications. Mrs. Gustave Blessner, wife of the Director of Music in the 1840's, drew the original "Stage Coach Picture" for use on the covers of her husband's waltzes which he composed and published in 1845. He dedicated his compositions to former students and "... the young ladies of St. Mary's School, Raleigh, North Carolina." The stagecoach was a vital element in the social life of the school in those days as it brought news from town as well as the "new scholars" (students). It inspired the 1925 yearbook staff to adopt the Stagecoach as a more distinguished name.

We, the 1981 Stagecoach staff, could no more eloquently express our feelings than our counterparts did some 55 years ago when in their foreword they hoped "... to pay tribute to the tradition of her productive past, desiring even more to have a vehicle to draw her into a purposeful future."
